GAY DAY

Joe Rose died last March 19 in a brutal homophobic attack . As an activist for gay rights, Joe was known by the gay and lesbian community who were shocked by his violent death. Almost as shocking to some was the mainstream media portrayal of the story of Joe's murder which seemed to contribute to the homophobia at the root of the attack. The gay and lesbian community expected the media to decry the homophobia that killed Joe.

On Saturday May 13 CKUT will decry that homophobia. GAY DAY will be a celebration during which the radio station's airwaves will be thrown open to the use of the gay, lesbian community with the participation of supportive straights . From 9 am to midnight CKUT will feature profiles of gays and lesbians throughout history, of community groups that service gays and lesbians, "coming out" stories, music features, radio drama, poetry, fiction,and lots of chat.

GAY DAY will not be limited to the studios of CKUT. In conjunction with GAY DAY, there will be a multi-media art exhibition at Foufounes Electriques, from May 12-15. On Sunday May 14, also at Foufounes, we are presenting a soirée of Peinture en Directe, poetry, performance and bands.

Gay, lesbian, and gay friendly businesses will contribute prizes to give away on air. These businesses will also display collection boxes for donations to be divided between Chez Ma Cousine-an AIDS hospice that provides a home for People Living With AIDS (PLWA's) , and Le Centre Communitaire Gai et Lesbienne . All proceeds from GAY DAY related events will go to these organizations.

GAY DAY is not just for gays and lesbians. This vibrant and varied community will tuen you in to programming that will give you some idea of the nature and breadth of their art, politics, literature, controversies, and contributions.
