As usual at CKUT, we've had some turn-over among our programmers since the last issue of Statik. The Nighthawk, host of Barrelfull of Blues has gone to explore the juke joints of Ontario. Ecco la Lirica, our opera and classical music show Saturday mornings, is no longer airing - thanks go to the many hosts who made that show possible, especially Marissa Panetta, Andrew Jones and Maryse Fredette.

Looking ahead, we've got a bunch of new music programs. There's a new show featuring musical roots of rock 'n' roll, Great Balls of Fire, Sundays at 13h. Also, Saturdays at 7h, The B-Train takes you on a ride through pre-WWII blues and jazz. Hip hop fans should check out DJ Genius & the Prophet, Tuesdays at 15h. French pop of the 20th Century is featured on Sang? Non!, Saturdays at 15h. For fans of new music, Soundings on Mondays at 9h and Curiousear and Curiouser Wednesdays at 24h are essential listening. Try out Pagan Self-Assertion and Cacaphonograph Tuesdays and Sundays ,respectively, at 24h for a mixed bag of music with a rock emphasis.

Some programs have changed their times. Here's a list, in case you've had trouble locating your favorites. Underground Sounds, CKUT's program of news and music from the Canadian music scene is now 2 hours long, Mondays at 20h. Sons d'esprit, a program of electro-acoutic music, is now on Thursdays at 21h. Cloud of Snakes and Parrots plays a mix of music Tuesdays at 11h. Radio Endurance is now on Fridays at 24h, with new music and live concerts recorded at New York's Knitting Factory. Communal Apocalypse, now known as Stateless Society, has relocated to Mondays at 1h. Music for Big Ears, playing jazz and new music, can now be found Wednesdays at 9h.

We're also involved in bringing you some of the best live music

words & music

in the city, co-presenting events such as the Deja Voodoo BBQ, the 25th anniversary concerts of McGill's Electronic Music Studio, the Etats Soniques concert series, Dysfunctions and Amsterdam and many more in December and January. Look out for a whole heap of exciting benefits in conjunction with our FUNDING DRIVE in late February.

Keep listening, keep in touch. Let us know what you think about CKUT, or, better yet, get involved.

On October 21, CKUT-FM presented 14 hours of feminist programming during Feminist Focus Day. The special projects fondly known as "focus days" began two years ago, with the grand premier of Gay Day. Focus days are produced by the community in conjunction with the volunteers at CKUT. Most people who decide to become involved in a focus day have never done radio, but they are quickly initiated. Focus days are, in a way, a catalyst for the community: a good occasion to get together, to talk, to act, and to be heard.

In 1991, CKUT intends to take its place during AIDS Action Week here at McGill University. We'll be presenting a wide-ranging programme, examining the multiple facets of the problems experienced by people living with HIV and AIDS. In February, during Black History Month, we hope to repeat last year's effort with twelve hours of programming called Black Talk.

The Spoken Word Department exists to provide you with the opportunity to express your ideas and to voice your point of view. We do everything we can to give individuals and social groups the chance to be heard. So speak up! If you are interested, contact Voula Kraniou or Jessica Marsh at 398-6787.

Le 21 octobre dernier, CKUT-MF vous a présenté 14 heures de programmation féministe dans le cadre de son Feminist Focus Day. Les projets spécioux qu'on appelle en bon français les "focus days" on débuté il y a deux ans. La grande première était La Journée Gaie. Les "focus days" sont une réalisation de la communauté, conjointement avec les bénévoles de CKUT. La pluport des personnes qui décident de s'y impliquer n'ont jamais fait de radio, mais ils y sont vite initiés. Les journées "focus days" sont, en quelque sort, un catalyseur pour les membres de la communauté, une bonne occasion de se rassembler, de discuter, d'agir et de se faire entendre.

En 1991, CKUT a l'intention de prendre sa place lors de la Semaine d'action contre le SIDA, ici à l'université McGill. Nous vous présenterons alors une programmation d'envergure, examinant les facettes multiples du problème des personnes atteintes du VIH et du SIDA. En février, mois de l'histoire de la communauté noire, nous espérons répété notre expérience de l'an passé, en vous suggérant une douzaine d'heures d'écoute qui s'intitulent Black Talk.

Notre département de créations orales est là pour vous donner l'opportunité d'exprimer vos idées et de faire valoir votre point de vue. Nous faisons des pieds et des mains pour donner la chance aux individus et aux différents groupements de notre région, de se faire entendre. À vous de prendre la parole! Si cela vous intéresse, contactez Voula Kraniou ou Jessica Marsh en composant le 398-6787.

Depuis la dernière édition de Statik, comme à l'habitude, nous avons dû réajuster notre programmation. Le Nighthawk, animateur de l'émission Barrel Full of Blues est parti à la découverte de l'Ontario. Egalement nous n'aurons plus l'Ecco la Lirica et la musique d'opéra du samedi matin. (Nous tenons toutefois à remercier les personnes qui se sont dévouées pour cette émission, notamment Marissa Panetta, Andrew Jones et Maryse Frédette.)

Pour ce qui est des bonnes nouvelles, nous vous offrons maintenant une brochette musicale des plus étoffés. Le dimanche à 13h00, une toute nouvelle émission, Great Balls of Fire, vous ramène aux racines du Rock and Roll. Les samedis, à 7h00, the B. Train vous amène le jazz et les blues d'avant-guerre. Les monioques du hip-hop seront plus que comblé(e)s les mardis après-midi de 15h00 à 17h00 avec DJ Genius et le Prophet. CKUT fait l'acquisition d'un nouveau bijou de pop francophone avec l'émission Sang? Non! animée par Poe, samedi à 13h00. Nos nouveautés pour les nouveautés, l'émission Soundings le lundi à 9h00, et Curiousear et Curiouser le mercredi à 24h00 sauront sûrement vous plaire. Pour ce qui est d'une variété musicale, nous vous suggérons d'écouter Pagans of Assertion le mardi à 24h00 et Cacaphonograph le dimanche, également à 24h00.

Quelques émissions ont déménagé dans notre grille. Underground Sounds double maintenant la dose d'info sur la scène underground canadienne, et débute à 20h00 le lundi. Si vous aviez perdu l'électro-acoustique des Sons d'Esprit, vous les retrouverez le jeudi à 21h00. Cloud of Snakes and Parrots vous propose sa ratatouille musicale, maintenant le mardi à 11h00. Le vendredi, 24h00, est dorénavant réservé à l'émission Radio Endurance se concentront sur la musique actuelle, et des performances enregistrées au Knitting Factory de New York. Communal Apocalypse change de nom pour devenir Stateless Society et s'est transposé au lundi 13h00. Le jazz et la musique actuelle de l'émission Music for Big Ears peuvent maintenant être entendus le mercredi à 9h00.

CKUT continu toujours à travailler fort pour vous présenter les meilleurs spectacles sur scène, tel le Déjà Voodoo B-B-Q, les concerts 25e anniversaire des studios de musique électronique de McGill, la série Etats Soniques, Dysfunctions, Amsterdam, et d'autres encore en 1991, sans oublier les cadeaux qu'on vous fera lors de notre 2e CAMPAGNE ANNUELLE DE LEVÉE DE FONDS, fin février. Restez à l'écoute, faites nous parvenir vos commentaires et vos suggestions, ou meilleur encore, venez vous joindre à nous.
